ROBERT F. MORRIS ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Plymouth Meeting, PA October 5, 2017 – Robert F. Morris has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in North America.

The induction ceremony at which Robert F. Morris became a Fellow took place recently before an audience of 900 persons during the recent 2017 Annual Meeting of the College in Montréal, Québec.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers of diverse backgrounds, who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5,800 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. The College maintains and seeks to improve the standards of trial practice, professionalism, ethics, and the administration of justice through education and public statements on independence of the judiciary, trial by jury, respect for the rule of law, access to justice, and fair and just representation of all parties to legal proceedings. The College is thus able to speak with a balanced voice on important issues affecting the legal profession and the administration of justice.

Robert F. Morris is a partner in the firm of Morris Wilson, P.C. and has been practicing in this location for 26 years. The newly inducted Fellow is an alumnus of Yale University and Temple Law School.

He is a former President of the Montgomery Bar Association and presently chairs the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Commission. He is a board-certified civil trial attorney and has tried scores of complex civil matters to verdict.
